

Paddy Upton

Know your Facilitator!

Professor Paddy Upton brings over 25-years of experience of working in high-performing teams in business and sport, across multiple industries and different cultures spanning five continents. He helped lead the Indian national cricket team to win the 2011 ICC Cricket World Cup, and to become the World's No. 1 Test Team for their first time.

He has degrees from four different universities, including two Master's degrees, in Sport Science and in Executive Coaching, and is a Professor of Practice at Deakin University (Business and Law faculty) in Melbourne, Australia.

Spotlight Areas:

Here are a few compelling topics that Paddy talks about on a regular basis in his engagements.

High Performing Teams

- ▶ Creating intelligent teams.
- ▶ Innovation.
- ▶ Creating your unique best team.

Healthy Leadership

- ▶ Leading in the knowledge-era. Breaking new ground in leadership best-practice
- ▶ The leadership continuum. Moving towards even healthier leadership
- ▶ Leadership and ego. The power of intention

Time Limit

90 minutes

Formats

Keynote Speech

Group size

Upto 500

Customization

Possible

Is this Masterclass right for my team?

Over the last 25 years, Paddy has been deeply involved in studying and practicing this timeless leadership topic. If you are looking at building a High Performance Team in your organization or inspire your team in that direction, Paddy Upton is perhaps amongst the best Facilitators available in the world on this topic.